How Can Faith Help?

Six thousand years ago in the Garden of Eden, by their deliberate choice to disobey our Creator, mankind set themselves on the path to destruction. The tribulation*^B of our day is the direct result of that bad choice. God knew where our disobedience would lead. He has been organizing our rescue during those six millennia. The Bible is a simple book provided by God to explain how to take advantage of his provision for life. The Bible gives hope by teaching you can build a faith that will preserve you alive.^(Heb 10:38-39 on pg 27) The complicated philosophies of men have made the Bible seem difficult. Jesus said his easy words would set you free of the worry of being deceived.^{(131) & (95)} Take the opportunity to learn and appreciate the value of faith in truth!

*A Daniel 6:1-26 Literal Version (LITV) It pleased Darius [the Median king of Babylon shortly after Babylon was conquered by the Medes and Persians about 539 BCE] to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps [governors], that they might be over the kingdom. (2) And over them were three presidents (Daniel was one of them), so that these satraps might give account to them, and the king should have no loss. (3) Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the king was planning to set him over all the kingdom. (4) Then the presidents and satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom. But they could find no occasion or fault because he was trustworthy. And no error or fault was found in him. (5) Then these men said, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel unless we find it against him concerning the Law of his God. (6) Then these presidents and satraps gathered together to the king and said this to him, King Darius, live forever. (7) All the presidents of the kingdom, the prefects, and the satraps, the officials and the governors, have planned together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, except from you, O king, he shall be thrown into the den of lions. (8) Now, O king, establish the decree and sign the document, so that it may not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not pass away. (9) All on account of this, King Darius signed the document and the decree. (10) And when he had learned that the document was signed, Daniel went to his house. And his windows were open in his roof room toward Jerusalem. He knelt on his knees three times in the day, and prayed and praised before his God, as he did before. (11) Then these men met together and found Daniel praying and seeking mercy before his God. (12) Then they came near and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree, saying, Have you not signed a decree that every man who shall ask of any god or man within thirty days, except of you, O king, that he shall be thrown into the lions' den? The king answered and said, The thing is certain, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not pass away. (13) Then they answered and said before the king, Daniel, who is of the sons of the exile of Judah, has not set attention on you, O king, or the decree that you have signed, but he makes his prayer three times in the day. (14) Then the king, when he heard the word, was very displeased with himself, and he set his heart on Daniel, to deliver him. And he labored until the going of the sun to deliver him. (15) Then these men met before the king and said to the king, O king, know that the law of the Medes and Persians is that every decree or law which the king enacts may not be changed. (16) And the king commanded. And they brought Daniel, and they threw him into the lions' den. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God whom you constantly serve will deliver you. (17) And a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den. And the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his nobles, that the affair may not change concerning Daniel. (18) Then the king went to his palace and spent the night fasting; and diversions were not brought before him; and his sleep fled from him. (19) Then the king rose up in the dawn, in the daylight, and hurried to the lions' den. (20) And when he came to the den, he cried with a grieved voice to Daniel. The king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, your God whom you always serve, is He able to deliver you from the lions? (21) Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live forever. (22) My God has sent His Angel, and He has shut the mouths of the lions. And they have not harmed me, because in His sight innocence was found in me. And also before you, O king, I have done no harm. (23) Then the king was exceedingly glad over him. And he commanded to bring up Daniel from the den. And Daniel was brought out of the den, and no harm was found on him, because he trusted in his God. (24) And the king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel. And they threw them into the lions' den, them, their sons and their wives. And the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones before they reached to the bottom of the den. (25) Then King Darius wrote to all the peoples, the nations, and the languages who were living in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. (26) A decree was given from before me that in all the domain of my kingdom there shall be trembling and fear before the God of Daniel. For He is the living God and endures forever, and His kingdom is the one which shall not be destroyed. And His rule shall be to the end.

*B Please realize: The tribulation Jesus warned us about,¹ and which is overwhelming our world in these last days, is not an act of God. It is the result of our sustained and determined course in disobedience to the directions of our Creator. Rather than being the cause of the tribulation, God is helping those who will listen.² The Bible explains how He is helping. It is God's gift... You need to understand what it says if you are to exercise faith in God's promised deliverance.

¹ Matthew 24:7-14 CEV Nations and kingdoms will go to war against each other. People will starve to death, and in some places there will be earthquakes. (8) But this is just the beginning of troubles. (9) You will be arrested, punished, and even killed. Because of me, you will be hated by people of all nations. (10) Many will give up and will betray and hate each other. (11) Many false prophets will come and fool a lot of people. (12) Evil will spread and cause many people to stop loving others. (13) But if you keep on being faithful right to the end, you will be saved. (14) When the good news about the kingdom has been preached all over the world and told to all nations, the end will come.

² Matthew 24:3 Darby And as he was sitting upon the mount of Olives the disciples came to him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be, and what is the sign of thy coming and the completion of the age?~

Matthew 24:21-28 Darby for then shall there be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, nor ever shall be; (22) and if those days had not been cut short, no flesh had been saved; but on account of the elect those days shall be cut short. (23) Then if any one say to you, Behold, here is the Christ, or here, believe it not. (24) For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall give great signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even the elect. (25) Behold, I have told you beforehand. (26) If therefore they say to you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth; behold, he is in the inner chambers, do not believe it . (27) For as the lightning goes forth from the east and shines to the west, so shall be the coming of the Son of man. [The Bible has illuminated the earth for 2000 years since Christ came to mankind. Christ is alive⁽⁷⁷⁾ in the Gospel accounts of his teachings. Don't be fooled to look elsewhere.] (28) For wherever the carcass is, there will be gathered the eagles. [The remains of Christ, or his body or carcass, are his teachings.]

What you are reading is the most important message you have ever considered.³ Even if you are a long time Bible student, you might not have thought about the meaning of all the scriptures presented.

Please consider if... These scriptures demonstrate why it is not arrogant to draw attention to the importance of this message. After all, it's not important because it is our message. It is the message of Christ Jesus.

The reason you might not have gleaned this insight, even if you have already read the Bible, is because it is only now being more fully understood as the light from the scriptures grows brighter and brighter⁴ (or, put another way, as mankind's understanding of the Bible becomes clearer in these last days). To get the full sense of the Scriptures, you must begin with an understanding that it matters where we live in the stream of the time it covers. If you had lived 3000 years ago, for example, you would have been living

⁴ Proverbs 4:18-22 BBE But the way of the upright is like the light of early morning, getting brighter and brighter till the full day. (19) The way of sinners is dark; they see not the cause of their fall. (20) My son, give attention to my words; let your ear be turned to my sayings. (21) Let them not go from your eyes; keep them deep in your heart. (22) For they are life to him who gets them, and strength to all his flesh.

among those still having to wait another thousand years for the Christ (or Messiah) to appear. The only acceptable way to worship God would have been through the Jewish Law Code and their Priesthood. You would have needed to be born a Jew, or to have become a Jewish proselyte.⁵ It was the Jewish nation to whom many of the Messianic promises were made. Being a Jew or proselyte were the only two acceptable choices for pleasing God 3000 years ago, even as the Bible explains.⁶ Also, you must really *understand*⁷ the Bible if you are to truly believe (have faith) in it. It

⁵ Exodus 12:48-49 MWT (With God's divine name restored.) If anyone who isn't an Israelite wants to celebrate the Passover to יהוה⁽¹⁷⁾ with you, every man and boy in that family must first be circumcised. Then they may join in the meal, just like native Israelites. No uncircumcised man or boy may eat the Passover meal! (49) One law exists for both native Israelites and to those foreigners who live among you [and express faith by being circumsized – Jewish proselytes].~

Those foreigners or alien residents later came to be called proselytes:

Matthew 23:15 MWT "How horrible it will be to you, Scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you travel over sea and the dry land to make one proselyte [or, convert to Judaism], and whenever it happens, you make him twice as much a son of Gehenna as you are. [Gehenna was the Valley of Hinnom – a trash dump outside ancient Jerusalem where trash and refuse was thrown. Fires were kept burning to consume the refuse. Being thrown there represented eternal destruction by God.] is difficult to understand the Bible if you don't consider its message from God's perspective or viewpoint on the time period it recounts.

⁶ John 4:20-23 CEV My [Samaritan] ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews say Jerusalem is the only place to worship." (21) Jesus said to her: Believe me, the time is coming when you won't worship the Father either on this mountain or in Jerusalem. (22) You Samaritans don't really know the one you worship. But we Jews do know the God we worship, and by using us, God will save the world [or, salvation originates with the Jews]. (23) But a time is coming, and it is already here! Even now the true worshipers are being led by the Spirit to worship the Father according to the truth. These [individual followers of Christ] are the ones the Father is seeking to worship him.

Taking another example of the importance of the Bible timeline: If you had lived 2000 years ago, you could have witnessed Jesus Christ when he presented himself as the Jewish Messiah (the Messiah promised to mankind by the Bible for 4000 years before his birth). That Messianic hope was first promised in the Garden of Eden, the Messiah being identified at that time only as "the seed of the woman."⁸ The rest of the Old Testament (OT) (everything after Gen. 3:15 [on about page 3 of the Bible]) provides additional promises and information regarding that coming Messiah. To prove Jesus was God's son (the Messiah) and had authority from God⁽¹⁷⁾ to abolish (or to fulfill) the Law so as to establish Christianity,⁽⁶⁾ you could have seen the miracles Christ performed. Jesus helped all those persons who came to him in faith.⁹ Had you lived then, you might have been healed by him

⁸ Genesis 3:13-15 MWT And יהוה' ⁽¹⁷⁾ God said to the woman, What is this you have done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived me and so I ate. (14) And יהוה' God said to the serpent, Because you have done this, you are cursed above all beasts, and above every animal of the field. You shall go on your belly, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life. (15) And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your seed and her Seed; He will crush your head, and you shall bruise His heel.

⁹ Luke 6:17-19 GW Jesus came down from the mountain with them and stood on a level place. A large crowd of his disciples and many other people were there. They had come from all over Judea, Jerusalem, and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon. (18) They wanted to hear him and be cured of their diseases. Those who were tormented by evil spirits were cured. (19) The entire crowd was trying to touch him because power was coming from him and curing all of them.~

Matthew 8:13 BBE And Jesus said to the captain [centurion], Go in peace; as your faith is, so let it be done to you. And the servant was made well in that hour.~

yourself; or had a loved one who was. Jesus required a change, however, on the part of the Jews who wanted to express faith in him. If you had been a Jew or proselyte when Jesus appeared, you would have needed to abandon the form of worship you had previously followed, and put faith in Jesus and his teachings.^{10 & (6)} Even though your forefathers had worshiped God acceptably for 1500 years through their Jewish religion and law code, you would have had to abandon their faith and convert to Christianity.¹¹ You could have had a measure of pride in knowing your nation, and their form of worship, had been used by God to produce the Savior of mankind (Jesus was born as a child of the Jewish nation).⁽⁶⁾ You would still, however, have needed to abandon faith

Matthew 13:55-58 CEV Isn't he the son of the carpenter? Isn't Mary his mother, and aren't James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas his brothers? (56) Don't his sisters still live here in our town? How can he do all this?" (57) So the people were very unhappy because of what he was doing. But Jesus said, "Prophets are honored by everyone, except the people of their hometown and their own family." (58) And because the people did not have any faith, Jesus did not work many miracles there.

¹⁰ Acts 2:36 ALT Therefore, let all the house of Israel know securely [fig., without a doubt] that God made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified!"

¹¹ Acts 13:16-23 CEV Paul got up. He motioned with his hand and said: People of Israel, and everyone else who worships God, listen! (17) The God of Israel chose our ancestors, and he let our people prosper while they were living in Egypt. Then with his mighty power he led them out, (18) and for about forty years he took care of them in the desert. (19) He destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan and gave their land to our people. (20) All this happened in about 450 years. Then God gave our people judges until the time of the prophet Samuel, (21) but the people demanded a king. So for forty years God gave them King Saul, the son of Kish from the tribe of Benjamin. (22) Later, God removed Saul and let David rule in his place. God said about him, "David the son of Jesse is the kind of person who pleases me most! He does everything I want him to do." (23) God promised that someone from David's family would come to save the people of Israel, and that one is Jesus.

in Judaistic practices. Christ made that change at the direction of his Father¹² יהוה.⁽¹⁷⁾ יהוה was the well-known God of the pre-Christian Jews.⁽¹⁷⁾ The scriptures helping us understand that should also make clear: Where we live in time matters! The form of worship we must practice depends, to some extent, on when

¹² John 5:20-30 MWT (20) "For the Father dearly loves the son, and shows him all the things which He Himself does, and greater works than these He will show to him, so that you will marvel. (21) "For even as the Father raises dead ones and makes them alive, so also the son makes alive whom he wills. (22) "The Father doesn't judge anyone, but He has given all judgment to the son, (23) so that everyone will honor the son just as they honor the Father. The one not honoring the son does not honor the Father who sent him. (24) "Most surely I tell you, the one hearing my word and believing [or having faith] in the One having sent me, has eternal life and does not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life! (25) "Most positively, I say to you, an hour is coming and now is, when dead persons will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those having heard will live. (26) "For even as the Father has life in Himself, so He has also given to the son to have life in himself. (27) "And He also gave the son the right to judge everyone, because he is the "son of man." (28) "Don't be surprised at this, because an hour is coming when all those in the tombs will hear his voice, (29) and they will come out of the graves: the ones having done good things to a resurrection of life, but the ones having practiced wicked things to a resurrection of judgment. (30) "I am not able to do anything of myself. Just as I hear I judge, and my judgment is righteous, because I do not seek my will but the will of my Father who sent me.~

Matthew 5:17 BBE Let there be no thought that I have come to put an end to the law or the prophets. I have not come for destruction, but to make complete.~

Galatians 5:4-6 GNB Those of you who try to be put right with God by obeying the Law have cut yourselves off from Christ. You are outside God's grace. (5) As for us, our hope is that God will put us right with him; and this is what we wait for by the power of God's Spirit working through our faith. (6) For when we are in union with Christ Jesus, neither circumcision [obeying the Law Code] nor the lack of it makes any difference at all; what matters is faith that works through love.

we are alive in the Bible's record of the 6000 years since Adam and Eve were created.¹³ To understand the Bible, you should begin by understanding it as a revelation of the history of mankind, which history also reflects the outworking of God's purpose to save his creation (including ~~us~~ you). Our having a faith that can preserve us alive¹⁴ is dependent on our understanding what God is doing. That's one thing Jesus came to give us, knowledge about his Father.¹⁵

Gaining the understanding that it matters when we live can also help you appreciate why this is the most wonderful time to be alive in all mankind's history (if, that is, you are a person who loves the truth). Since we will be considering the Bible's recorded history, including both the 4000 years before Christ was born and the 2000 years since his birth, we need to identify the Creator who dealt with mankind for that first 4000 years. יהוה,⁽¹⁷⁾ the God of the Hebrew Scriptures and the Father of Christ Jesus,¹⁶ had his name recorded in the Old Testament [OT] over 6000 times. An English sounds like word for Jesus's name is Yeshua (transliterated from Hebrew). יהוה,¹⁷ however, is the Hebrew name of the God of creation. Jesus made clear we must know both he and his

¹⁵ John 18:37 God's Word [GW] Pilate asked him, "So you are a king?" Jesus replied, "You're correct in saying that I'm a king. I have been born and have come into the world for this reason: to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to me."

¹⁶ Matthew 16:13-17 BBE Now when Jesus had come into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he said, questioning his disciples, Who do men say that the Son of man is? (14) And they said, Some say, John the Baptist; some, Elijah; and others, Jeremiah, or one of the prophets. (15) He says to them, But who do you say that I am? (16) And Simon Peter made answer and said, You are the Christ, the Son of the living God. (17) And Jesus made answer and said to him, A blessing on you, Simon Bar-jonah: because this knowledge has not come to you from flesh and blood, but from my Father in heaven.

¹⁷ The self-given authorized Divine Name of the true God of the Bible, as recorded in ancient Hebrew, is יהוה. (Please visit: JustBibleTruth.com/DoesGodHaveAName.html) When spoken by Hebrews, to English speakers the Name sounds like Yea•Vah (that is “Yea” as in Yea go team followed by “Vah” like the first two letters of vault). Some translators erroneously represented the Name as “LORD” in all capital letters, while others attempted to translate it into English as “Jehovah” or as “Yahweh.” יהוה gave no instructions (or even permission) to attempt to translate his name into any other language.

יהוה God Is jealous for his Name:

Exodus 6:1-3 MWT with Divine Name restored. And יהוה said to Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh; for by a strong hand he shall let my people go, and by a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land. (2) And God spoke to Moses, and said to him, I am יהוה. (3) And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, as the Almighty *God; but by my name יהוה I did not make myself known to them.~

Psalms 83:18 Darby That they may know that thou alone, whose name is Jehovah [יהוה], art the Most High over all the earth.~

Isaiah 12:2 Darby Behold, *God is my salvation: I will trust, and not be afraid; for Jah, Jehovah [יהוה] is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation.~

Isaiah 26:4 Literal Version [LITV] Trust in Jehovah [יהוה] forever, for in Jah Jehovah [יהוה] is everlasting strength.~

You will find as you study the Bible, some translations will contain “LORD” in all capital letters (while others use “Jehovah” as an attempted English translation). A superstition arose against pronouncing the Divine Name, because of a misapplication of the scripture that warns against taking God’s name in vane* (or misusing it). That superstition resulted in the Divine Name being omitted from some translations of the Bible. When you see “LORD” in all caps, it identifies the Divine Name יהוה appeared in Translation demonstrating superstitious removal of God's name:

Exodus 20:7 ESV "You shall not take the name of the LORD

[יהוה] your God in vain, for the LORD [יהוה] will not hold him guiltless who takes his name in vain.

Proverbs 30:4 GW [To the audience] "Who has gone up to heaven and come down? Who has gathered the wind in the palm of his hand? Who has wrapped water in a garment? Who has set up the earth from one end to the other? What is his name or the name of his son? Certainly, you must know!

¹⁹ Mark 9:1-7 CEV I can assure you that some of the people standing here will not die before they see God's kingdom come with power. (2) Six days later Jesus took Peter, James, and John with him. They went up on a high mountain, where they could be alone. There in front of the disciples, Jesus was completely changed. (3) And his clothes became much whiter than any bleach on earth could make them. (4) Then Moses and Elijah were there talking with Jesus. (5) Peter said to Jesus, "Teacher, it is good for us to be here! Let us make three shelters, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." (6) But Peter and the others were terribly frightened, and he did not know what he was talking about. (7) The shadow of a cloud passed over and covered them. From the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, and I love him. Listen to what he says!"

²⁰ Matthew 11:25-27 CEV At that moment Jesus said: My Father, Lord of heaven and earth, I am grateful that you hid all this from wise and educated people and showed it to ordinary people. (26) Yes, Father, that is what pleased you. (27) My Father has given

We attempt to scripturally answer the following questions: Can faith²¹ save your life? Can faith heal you? Can your faith help other people? Does what faith can do for you change based on when you have lived in the Bible's record of history? If faith provides you protection, why you and not someone else? Are there things faith can not do?²²

Looking back in Bible history, we note it records different ways faith⁽²¹⁾ helped individuals in the past. Considering those examples can help us understand how faith can or might benefit us! The Bible recounts, for example, that a woman who lived during the days of Christ's preaching (33 to 36 CE [Christian Era]) suffered with a bleeding problem: (Mark 5:25-26 Modern World Translation [MWT]) Now there was a woman who had suffered from a flow of blood twelve years, 26 and she had been put to many pains by many physicians and had spent all her resources and had not been benefited but, rather, had gotten worse. How might faith help such a woman, and what might have contributed to her having enough faith to help herself?

This woman was a Jew (a Hebrew) and so she grew up studying parts of the Old Testament (the portion of the Bible which existed in her day - including its inspired account of Jewish history). She would have been aware of the examples therein set down of the power of God's spirit, such as one of the miracles connected with God's prophet Elisha (about 3000 years ago, or around 857 BCE [Before the Christian Era]): (2 Kings 13:20-21) "After that Elisha died and they buried him. And there were marauding bands of the Moabites that regularly came into the land at the coming in of the year. 21 And it came about as they were burying a man, why, here me everything, and he is the only one who knows the Son. The only one who truly knows the Father is the Son. But the Son wants to tell others about the Father, so that they can know him too.

they saw the marauding band. At once they threw the man into Elisha's burial place and went off. When the man touched the bones of Elisha, he immediately came to life and stood upon his feet." In that Bible account, no faith was required as both Elisha and the unnamed resurrected man were already dead. Reading that and similar scriptures no doubt helped that woman with the flow of blood to have faith, however. It helped her build faith great things could be accomplished through the power of God's spirit. She would also have been taught the Jewish Bible prophecies about the coming Messiah,²³ and she no doubt heard²⁴ about Jesus and the powerful works he was doing in her

²³ Isaiah 7:14 CEV But the LORD [יְהוָה]⁽⁴⁷⁾ will still give you proof. A virgin is pregnant; she will have a son and will name him Immanuel.~

Isaiah 9:6-7 Darby For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name is called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty *God, Father of Eternity, Prince of Peace. (7) Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgment and with righteousness, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of Jehovah [יְהוָה] of hosts will perform this.

²⁴ John 7:31 Darby But many of the crowd believed on him, and said, Will the Christ, when he comes, do more signs than those which this man has done?~

John 11:45-48 Darby Many therefore of the Jews who came to Mary and saw what he had done [resurrected her brother Lazarus], believed on him; (46) but some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. (47) The chief priests, therefore, and the Pharisees gathered a council [the Sanhedrin], and said, What do we? for this man does many signs. (48) If we let him thus alone, all will believe on him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.~

day.²⁵ & (131) The woman started to believe (to have faith) God would use his spirit to help her based on her faith in the savior she knew יהוה⁽¹⁷⁾ God had promised.²⁶ & (8) The Bible tells us she formed a plan, and then put her faith into action: (Mark 5:27-29) "When she heard the things about Jesus, she came behind in the crowd and touched his outer garment; 28 for she kept saying: 'If I touch just his outer garments I shall get well.' 29 And immediately

Matthew 2:1-6 GNB Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem in Judea, during the time when Herod was king. Soon afterward, some men who studied the stars came from the East to Jerusalem (2) and asked, "Where is the baby born to be the king of the Jews? We saw his star when it came up in the east, and we have come to worship him." (3) When King Herod heard about this, he was very upset, and so was everyone else in Jerusalem. (4) He called together all the chief priests and the teachers of the Law and asked them, "Where will the Messiah be born?" (5) "In the town of Bethlehem in Judea," they answered. "For this is what the prophet wrote: (6) 'Bethlehem in the land of Judah, you are by no means the least of the leading cities of Judah; for from you will come a leader who will guide my people Israel.' "

²⁶ Isaiah 9:6-7 Darby For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name is called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty *God, Father of Eternity, Prince of Peace. (7) Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David and over his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with judgment and with righteousness, from henceforth even for ever. The zeal of Jehovah [יהוה] of hosts will perform this.

her fountain of blood dried up, and she sensed in her body that she had been healed of the grievous sickness." We who live today are favored to have both the record of Elisha and the others recorded in the Old Testament; as well as the account of this woman (and other faithful Christians) in the New Testament. That scriptural knowledge⁽⁷⁾ can favor us with a faith based on a lot more information than this sick woman had when she approached Jesus. As this inspired Bible record⁽⁶⁷⁾ tells us, the woman was able to draw יהוה's⁽¹⁷⁾ spirit by means of her faith in his promised Messiah – without Jesus even being aware what she was about to do. Jesus noticed her only after he perceived spirit go out of him: (Luke 8:42-48) . . . "As he was going the crowds thronged him. 43 And a woman, subject to a flow of blood for twelve years, who had not been able to get a cure from anyone, 44 approached from behind and touched the fringe of his outer garment, and instantly her flow of blood stopped. 45 So Jesus said: 'Who was it that touched me?' When they were all denying it, Peter said: 'Instructor, the crowds are hemming you in and closely pressing you.' 46 Yet Jesus said: 'Someone touched me, for I perceived that power went out of me.' 47 Seeing that she had not escaped notice, the woman came trembling and fell down before him and disclosed before all the people the cause for which she touched him and how she was healed instantly. 48 But he said to her: 'Daughter, your faith has made you well; go your way in peace.'" It seems unlikely this would have been a ruse by Jesus to pretend he did not know what the woman was doing until he felt God's spirit pass through him. The inspired record of his sincere effort to ascertain who touched him was also to help us understand the arrangement Jesus was in the process of establishing: A way for his followers to have a direct relationship with his Father based on their faith in him as the savior sent by God.⁽²⁷⁾ Jesus said at John 16:23-24: "And in that day you will ask me no question at all. Most truly I say to you, If you ask the Father for anything he will give it to you in my name. 24 Until this present time you have not asked a single thing in my name. Ask and you will receive, that your joy may be made full." Jesus also said at John 15:7-10: "If you remain in union with me and my sayings remain in you, ask whatever you wish and it will take place for you. 8 My Father is glorified in this, that you keep bearing much fruit and prove yourselves my disciples. 9 Just as the Father has loved me and I have loved you, remain in my love. 10 If you observe my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have observed the commandments of the Father and remain in his love."

Please note Jesus said: (Matthew 4:4) ..."It is written, 'Man must live, not on bread alone, but on every utterance coming forth through יהוה 's⁽¹⁷⁾ mouth.'" Many Bibles don't use God's name here, but reference Bibles (using footnotes by the Bible scholars who produced the translation) tell us that when Jesus said "it is written" here in Mat 4:4, he was quoting from Deuteronomy 8:3: [from the 1889 Darby Bible translation] "And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with the manna, which thou hadst not known, and which thy fathers knew not; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread alone, but by everything that goeth out of the mouth of Jehovah [יהוה] doth man live." Jesus was the perfect son of God, and spoke only what he learned from his Father.²⁷ Because of that, we can consider

²⁷ John 8:28-30 BBE So Jesus said, When the Son of man has been lifted up by you, then it will be clear to you who I am, and that I do nothing of myself, but say as the Father gave me teaching. (29) He who sent me is with me; he has not gone from me, because at all times I do the things which are pleasing to him. (30) When he said this a number [many] came to have faith in him.~

John 12:48-50 CEV But everyone who rejects me and my teachings will be judged on the last day by what I have said. (49) I don't speak on my own. I say only what the Father who sent me has told me to say. (50) I know that his commands will bring eternal life. That is why I tell you exactly what the Father has told me.~

John 5:19 CEV Jesus told the people: I tell you for certain that the Son cannot do anything on his own. He can do only what he sees the Father doing, and he does exactly what he sees the Father do.~

everything Jesus said as absolute truth. The truth Jesus spoke can be considered law just as surely as gravity is law. When Jesus said there is more happiness in giving than in receiving,²⁸ for example, you can know being selfish will never make you happy. What Jesus teaches us about building faith is real, and the faith we build becomes our God given and only hope! In the account about the woman with the flow of blood, that woman surely believed every word from God was true. She put complete faith in the promises of God as she knew them from the Bible, and so she became convinced she could be healed from her illness if she could just touch the outer garment of the one she ~~believed~~ knew to be God's son and the promised Messiah.²⁹ She literally healed herself [using God's spirit] by means of her faith. Jesus appreciated that and commended her faith. As Mark's parallel account recorded this event for us: (Mark 5:30-34) 'Immediately, also, Jesus recognized in himself that power had gone out of him, and he turned about in the crowd and began to say: "Who touched my outer garments?" 31 But his disciples began to say to him: "You see the crowd pressing in upon you, and do you say, 'Who touched me?'" 32 However, he was looking around to see her that had done this. 33 But the woman, frightened and trembling,³⁰

²⁸ Acts 20:35 GNB I have shown you in all things that by working hard in this way we must help the weak, remembering the words that the Lord Jesus himself said, 'There is more happiness in giving than in receiving.' "

²⁹ Luke 3:15-16 ESV As the people were in expectation, and all were questioning in their hearts concerning John, whether he might be the Christ, (16) John answered them all, saying, "I baptize you with water, but he who is mightier than I is coming, the strap of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire.

³⁰ The woman in this account was no doubt "frightened and trembling" because her illness made her unclean under Jewish knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. 34 He said to her: "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be in good health from your grievous sickness." Take special note Jesus there told the woman it was her faith that made her well. She was very literally living by the words [by her faith in the Hebrew Scriptures] that came forth from יהוה's⁽¹⁷⁾ mouth; living by her demonstrated faith in those words!(Mat 4:4 on pg 13)

In another example, a man who had faith came to Jesus seeking help for his servant who was ill: (Matthew 8:5-10 & 13) 'When he entered into Capernaum, an army officer came to him, entreating him 6 and saying: "Sir, my manservant is laid up in the house with paralysis, being terribly tormented." 7 He said to him: "When I get there I will cure him." 8 In reply the army officer said: "Sir, I am not a fit man for you to enter under my roof, but just say the word and my manservant will be healed. 9 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Be on your way!' and he is on his way, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it." 10 Hearing that, Jesus became amazed and said to those following him: "I tell you the truth, with no one in Israel have I found so great a faith... 13 Then Jesus said to the army officer: "Go. Just as it has been your faith, so let it come to pass for you." And the manservant was healed in that hour.'

law. She was, by law, to remain isolated. She could have been in peril of life by the judgment of her religious leaders.~

John 12:9-11 GNB A large number of people heard that Jesus was in Bethany, so they went there, not only because of Jesus but also to see Lazarus, whom Jesus had raised from death. (10) So the chief priests made plans to kill Lazarus too, (11) because on his account many Jews were rejecting them and believing in Jesus.

Please understand what Jesus told this army officer about faith: That it would happen for him just as he (in his faith) had imagined it. This was a man with a military command such that he told people what to do and they did it. He thus rightly reasoned the son of God would not have to make the journey to his home to heal his servant. (He also showed humility in stating he was not a fit man for Jesus to enter his home.) Surely, this man's faith helped him, and his servant. His faith actually helped him to plan out what was to happen for him, and then it happened, even though it was not the way Jesus had initially intended to help him. Jesus intended to go the man's home and heal his servant. The man had faith, however, that Jesus could just say the word and it would be so. The power of faith³¹ is not to be underestimated... It seems limited only by - well - our faith.³²

Make no mistake, faith is a powerful tool as a gift from our Creator. It is just as Jesus said at Mark 11:23: [MWT] ..."All the things you pray and ask for have faith that you have practically received, and you will have them." That means, of course, you must know from the Bible what it is appropriate for you to have faith in, so your request will be in agreement with God's purposes.³³ (We do not here assert you will be able to use God's spirit to calm the raging sea or raise the dead. We do not, on the other hand, assert our judgment over Holy Spirit so as to proclaim what faithful Christians will or will not be able to do. From the Bible history we have considered, it seems a personal matter for each Christian, as long as our request is for what God wants for us. Jesus said: [John 15:8 GNB] My Father's glory is shown by your bearing much fruit; and in this way you become my disciples. Based on that scripture, then, we can always pray for God to help us bear fruit; by telling others what we learn from Jesus.) God is helping mankind by means of the message brought by his son.⁽¹⁹⁾ We can pray to assist in that work.

And not only this, but you will even be able to say to this hill, 'Get up and throw yourself in the sea,' and it will. (22) If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer."~

Luke 17:5-6 GNB The apostles said to the Lord, "Make our faith greater." (6) The Lord answered, "If you had faith as big as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Pull yourself up by the roots and plant yourself in the sea!' and it would obey you.

Jesus was clear about one thing the gift of Holy Spirit would accomplish in his followers during these last days. He said he would send us a helper, the “spirit of truth” that would remain forever.³⁴ Jesus further said that helper would call to mind and help us understand the things he had taught us.³⁵ Those promises

It thus becomes important to know our being happy is God's will!³⁶ Our living forever is God's will.³⁷ Among the things the spirit can do, according to Jesus, then, is keep us alive forever.^(39 & 40) The "spirit of truth" can bring to mind all the promises of Jah יהוה!³⁸ We can, in turn, stay alive forever through our faith in those Bible promises!!!³⁹ (The promises of God are the light of life.)⁴⁰

It doesn't seem reasonable to introduce the idea that some of us will have the opportunity to live forever without providing scriptural support for saying such a thing. We herein consider one last and very important Bible example. This is a conversation Jesus had with Martha just before he resurrected her brother Lazarus.⁴¹ In this account we find two sisters with a brother who was sick. The sisters had faith in Jesus, and so they sent for him to heal their brother: (John 11:1-6 Good News Bible) (1) 'A man named Lazarus, who lived in Bethany, became sick. Bethany was the town where Mary and her sister Martha lived. (2) [This Mary was the one who poured the perfume on the Lord's feet and wiped them with her hair; it was her brother Lazarus who was sick.] (3) The sisters sent Jesus a message: "Lord, your dear friend is sick." (4) When Jesus heard it, he said, "The final result of this sickness will not be the death of Lazarus; this has happened in order to bring glory to God, and it will be the means by which the Son of God will receive glory." (5) Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

John 11:26 BBE And no one who is living and has faith in me will ever see death. Is this your faith?~

Matthew 8:13 BBE And Jesus said to the captain, Go in peace; as your faith is, so let it be done to you. And the servant was made well in that hour.

(6) Yet when he received the news that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was for two more days.'

Note Jesus loved Mary and Martha and Lazarus, so... Why would he stay two additional days before going to help them? Jesus also said the purpose of Lazarus' sickness was not death, but for the glory of he and his Father. We find, however, Lazarus did die! Reading from John 11:20-22: 'Therefore Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, met him; but Mary kept sitting at home. 21 Martha therefore said to Jesus: "Lord, if you had been here my brother would not have died. 22 And yet at present I know that as many things as you ask God for, God will give you."' Jesus told Martha her brother would rise from the dead, and she acknowledge a future day when the dead would be resurrected: (John 11:23-24) 'Jesus said to her: "Your brother will rise." 24 Martha said to him: "I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.'" Jesus next made the statement to Martha which should be of great interest to each of us who are trying to build faith. Jesus said the resurrection would be through him, and that the faithful alive at the time of his coming with kingdom power to perform the resurrection would never die at all, but would receive eternal life - without having to die. Following in John 11:2-7: 'Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; 26 and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all. Do you believe this?" 27 She said to him: "Yes, Lord; I have believed that you are the Christ the Son of God, the one coming into the world.'" Jesus there told Martha those living at the time of his second coming⁴² (and who manifest faith) would *never die at all. Do YOU have faith that is truth?*⁴³ Do you begin to grasp what your faith can mean for you if you do?

Jesus next shows what he had meant when he said Lazarus' sickness had not been for the purpose of death, but to bring glory to him and his Father. Next, Jesus publicly demonstrated what the (then future) "final day" resurrection would be like, as he brought to life a man who had been dead four days: (John 11:38-45) 'Hence Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the memorial tomb. It was, in fact, a cave, and a stone was lying against it. 39 Jesus said: "Take the stone away." Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him: "Lord, by now he must smell, for it is four days." 40 Jesus said to her: "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?" 41 Therefore they took the stone away. Now Jesus raised his eyes heavenward and said: "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 True, I knew that you always hear me; but on account of the crowd standing around I spoke, in order that they might believe that you sent me forth." 43 And when he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: "Lazarus, come on out!" 44 The [man] that had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings, and his countenance was bound about with a cloth (a cloth was around his face). Jesus said to them: "Loose him and let him go." 45 Therefore many of the Jews that had come to Mary and that beheld what he did put faith in him;' Jesus spending additional time before going to resurrect Lazarus seems to have been for the purpose of making the resurrection hope clear to all. After being dead four days, no one could doubt Lazarus was really dead. Also, no one should misunderstand what the resurrection is to be: Because everyone recognized Lazarus to be resurrected as the same man who had died. According to Jesus's own words, then,

⁴³ John 8:51 GW I can guarantee this truth: Whoever obeys what I say will never see death."

this very public resurrection brought glory to both Jesus and his Father יהוה.⁽¹⁷⁾

By means of the scriptures we have considered, Jesus teaches something wonderful we can build faith in: A chance to be among those who will never die at all. Some will point to Hebrews 9:27⁴⁴ or Ecclesiastes 3:2⁴⁵ and assert we all must die. That is true, unless Christ intervenes to stop us having to do so. Job promised a day when that intervention would happen: (Job 33:24-25) 24 Then he favors him and says, 'Let him off from going down into the pit! I have found a ransom! 25 Let his flesh become fresher than in youth; Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor.' That scripture holds out the hope of an escape from death. (Also, in a sense, we have all been dead already. We have been dead in our sins.⁴⁶ Being baptized⁴⁷ into Christ [by our exercising faith in his resurrection]⁴⁸ figuratively resurrects us from the

We had made God angry, and we were going to be punished like everyone else. (4) But God was merciful! We were dead because of our sins, but God loved us so much that he made us alive with Christ, and God's wonderful kindness is what saves you.

"Do YOU believe this"? Just as in the Bible examples we considered above, for you to receive the benefit of Jesus's promises, you must have faith what he said is true... Bible prophecy and world events suggest we have arrived at the time⁴⁹ when those who are righteously inclined will receive the reward.⁵⁰ The Bible promises those with eyes of faith will be witness to salvation standing up⁵¹ for the meek and righteous persons of the earth.⁵² As Jesus said: (Matthew 24:37 & 39) "For just as the days of Noah were, so the presence of the Son of man will be. . . and they took no note until the flood came and swept them all away." they quote Acts 16:31.⁶⁵ That scripture is truth of course! Some persons believe that is the only Bible verse you need to learn. If they can be acceptable to our Father with such logic, it is certainly fine with us.⁶⁶ We are left wondering why God inspired the balance of the Bible to be recorded.⁶⁷ & ⁽¹³¹⁾ The Bible itself explains why being familiar with everything Jesus taught is important: "This means everlasting life, their taking in knowledge of you the only true God, and the one you sent forth Christ Jesus". Jesus also said "if [and only if] you remain in my teachings, you are really my disciples."⁽¹³¹⁾ How could you possibly remain in Jesus's teachings if you didn't know what they were? It seems questionable whether knowledge of one (or even several) scriptures can grant knowledge necessary for real faith. "All scripture is inspired by God and beneficial..." reason it is not arrogant on our part to say our message is very important for you, then, is because we do our best to teach what Jesus Christ taught; including his warning about the danger of being misled by the teachings of men.⁷³ Some avowed Christians are really only seeking glory from and among their sectarian group.⁷⁴ They are simply not able to teach what Jesus taught, if they are mixing it with sectarian organizational teachings!⁷⁵

Please consider the example of William Tyndale. In the 1500's, William was responsible for the translation of the Bible into what had become the world's most common language: English.

⁷⁴ Luke 16:13-15 GW "A servant cannot serve two masters. He will hate the first master and love the second, or he will be devoted to the first and despise the second. You cannot serve God and wealth." (14) The Pharisees, who love money, heard all this and were making sarcastic remarks about him. (15) So Jesus said to them, "You try to justify your actions in front of people. But God knows what's in your hearts. What is important to humans is disgusting to God.

⁷⁵ Matthew 6:24 ALT "No one is able to be serving as a slave to two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other; you are not able to be serving as a slave to God and to worldly wealth.

Williams's efforts helped bring the prophetic decline of the dark ages.⁷⁶ Tyndale grew up immersed in the "holy" Roman (apostate) church teachings. As a young man, William told one of the powerful members of the clergy of that sect: "In a short time I will cause a boy who walks behind a plow to know more of the scriptures than you do." William was not arrogant to make that statement. Being exposed to the Bible, William simply realized the clergy members were not trying to teach the people what Jesus taught. That false "church" actually hid the Bible from common people by keeping it in an obscure and dead language (Latin). They misapplied it's teachings to manipulate and control people. They tried to convince most people, like William, they were too ignorant or stupid to understand the Bible on their own. They wanted those they could enslave to rely on their Clergy to "interpret" the Bible for them.⁽¹³¹⁾ The Church did their best to keep people ignorant and dependent, thus bringing about the thousand years of the Dark ages. England had grown from the ruins of Rome to become the world power. But still, the remnants of the apostate Roman Dark Ages Church held much authority. In 1536 CE, just before leaders of the church burned William Tyndale for his English Bible translation, he uttered his last public prayer: That God would open the eyes of the King of England [open his eyes to the damage being done he and his nation by the apostate church]. Within two years, by 1538, King Henry the VIII had placed copies of Tyndale's Bible in every church in England. For the first time since the dark ages⁽⁷⁶⁾ was brought about by the apostasy of the church Jesus left, common men and women had access to the Bible in their own language. If you understand the Bible today, you owe your knowledge in part to the sacrifice of William Tyndale. And... You know more of the scriptures than that hypocritical religious leader Mr. Tyndale was speaking with when he mentioned the boy following the plow. William Tyndale was not haughty in saying he could do better than those clergyman in teaching truth. Tyndale simply loved God's word and he understood what it was for. He knew its power.⁷⁷ Modern religion hides the Bible from their “sheep” in a little different way than the church of the dark ages. Instead of keeping it hidden in a dead language, understood only their internally trained scholars, modern religion keeps it buried under sectarian doctrine and dogma. They teach followers to show up once or twice a week to listen to organizational elders, or priests, or anointed individuals, or whatever else they choose to call their clergy.⁷⁸ They tell ⁷⁷ Hebrews 4:12-13 GNB The word of God is alive and active, sharper than any double-edged sword. It cuts all the way through, to where soul and spirit meet, to where joints and marrow come together. It judges the desires and thoughts of the heart. (13) There is nothing that can be hid from God; everything in all creation is exposed and lies open before his eyes. And it is to him that we must all give an account of ourselves.

do not know what their master is doing. Instead, I call you friends, because I have told you everything I heard from my Father.~ Luke 10:25-28 GNB A teacher of the Law came up and tried to trap Jesus. "Teacher," he asked, "what must I do to receive eternal life?" (26) Jesus answered him, "What do the Scriptures say? How do you interpret them?" (27) The man answered, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind'; and 'Love your neighbor as you love yourself.' ⁸⁰ Romans 2:13-16 GNB For it is not by hearing the Law that people are put right with God, but by doing what the Law commands. (14) The Gentiles do not have the Law; but whenever they do by instinct what the Law commands, they are their own law, even though they do not have the Law. (15) Their conduct shows that what the Law commands is written in their hearts. Their consciences also show that this is true, since their thoughts sometimes accuse them and sometimes defend them. (16) And so, according to the Good News I preach, this is how it will be on that Day when God through Jesus Christ will judge the secret thoughts of all.~

We recommend one additional way faith might help all those who love righteousness:⁸¹ Through their joining with others in offering a united prayer. God loves us all! The Bible teaches a righteous person's prayer has great power before our Father.⁸² Imagine a united prayer being offered up to the true God⁽¹⁷⁾ by every righteous person throughout the whole earth! There is an obvious problem with that idea. This old world system smacks of disunity and chaos. The Bible teaches we are not judges of hearts, and therefore, we can not know who among us is righteous.⁸³ (We are able to judge, and thereby avoid, wicked actions; wicked actions being those defined as disapproved by the Bible.)⁸⁴ The problem for us is that while some individuals are righteous, others are wicked and they will feign righteousness.⁽⁷³⁾ Yet other people remain ignorant,⁽⁷⁾ but also try to appear righteous; that because ignorant people usually imagine they are righteous. An example would be Saul of Tarsus (also known as the apostle Paul). In his early life Paul persecuted and even killed the followers of Christ, doing so in the name of his religion.⁸⁵ Even though Paul's actions

Why do you persecute me?' (8) 'Who are you, Lord?' I asked. 'I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute,' he said to me. (9) The men with me saw the light, but did not hear the voice of the one who was speaking to me. (10) I asked, 'What shall I do, Lord?' and the Lord said to me, 'Get up and go into Damascus, and there you will be told everything that God has determined for you to do.' (11) I was blind because of the bright light, and so my companions took me by the hand and led me into Damascus. (12) "In that city was a man named Ananias, a religious man who obeyed our Law and was highly respected by all the Jews living there. (13) He came to me, stood by me, and said, 'Brother Saul, see again!' At that very moment I saw again and looked at him. (14) He said, 'The God of our ancestors has chosen you to know his will, to see his righteous Servant, and to hear him speaking with his own voice. (15) For you will be a witness for him to tell everyone what you have seen and heard.

⁸⁶ 1 Timothy 1:12-13 Darby (12) And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has given me power, that he has counted me faithful, appointing to ministry him (13) who before was a blasphemer and persecutor, and an insolent overbearing man : but mercy was shewn me because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief.

⁸⁷ Acts 9:11-15 GNB The Lord said to him, "Get ready and go to Straight Street, and at the house of Judas ask for a man from Tarsus named Saul. He is praying, (12) and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come in and place his hands on him so that he might see again." (13) Ananias answered, "Lord, many people have told me about this man and about all the terrible should start with having humility to understand we are not judges of who is wicked or who is righteous. Having that realization, caution is needed as to who we join with in prayer, and caution about who we pray for as well (lest we pray in support of someone fighting against God). Whether "fighters against God" do so in their ignorance, or they do so in their wickedness, we must not support their actions.⁸⁸

In light of the disunity and hatred among those who profess religion,⁽⁷²⁾ then, how can we know who we can join with in prayer, or what common prayer we might offer? In complete unity, all righteously inclined persons can pray for our Father to bless and help the righteous - whoever they may prove to be. We can also pray that God strike down the wicked - without presuming to judge who they are; or setting a timetable for his doing so.⁸⁹ We can then be patient because we know יהוה⁽¹⁷⁾ is arranging things so as to save as many as possible through their things he has done to your people in Jerusalem. (14) And he has come to Damascus with authority from the chief priests to arrest all who worship you." (15) The Lord said to him, "Go, because I have chosen him to serve me, to make my name known to Gentiles and kings and to the people of Israel.

⁸⁸ Acts 5:38-39 GNB And so in this case, I tell you, do not take any action against these men. Leave them alone! If what they have planned and done is of human origin, it will disappear, (39) but if it comes from God, you cannot possibly defeat them. You could find yourselves fighting against God!" The Council followed Gamaliel's advice.

⁸⁹ Matthew 6:9-13 GNB This, then, is how you should pray: 'Our Father in heaven: May your holy name be honored; (10) may your Kingdom come; may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. (11) Give us today the food we need. (12) Forgive us the wrongs we have done, as we forgive the wrongs that others have done to us. (13) Do not bring us to hard testing, but keep us safe from the Evil One.'

expression of faith in Christ!⁹⁰ Quoting or paraphrasing any prayer taught us by the Christ (meaning "anointed one") is always acceptable.⁽⁸⁹⁾ By uttering such harmonious prayers through our faith in Christ Jesus, we can be found among the large group of the faithful⁽⁸¹⁾ who are uttering those very same prayers.⁽⁸⁹⁾ & (John 16:23-24 on pg 12) Those united prayers, in the variety and beauty of heartfelt utterances by each individual, rise as incense before our Heavenly Father from all around the earth, both by day and by night.⁹¹ In the unity of such prayers, we place ourselves in harmony with יהוה God⁽¹⁷⁾ as he is working to make all things better.⁹² All righteous persons must come to realize the wicked have be destroyed before things can get better.⁹³ And, we must

(25) But while people were asleep, his enemy planted weeds in the wheat field and went away. (26) When the wheat came up and formed kernels, weeds appeared. (27) "The owner's workers came to him and asked, 'Sir, didn't you plant good seed in your field? Where did the weeds come from?' (28) "He told them, 'An enemy did this.' "His workers asked him, 'Do you want us to pull out the weeds?' (29) "He replied, 'No. If you pull out the weeds, you may pull out the wheat with them. (30) Let both grow

In light of all these scriptures, we then say: Like no previous time in mankind's history, it is your faith that can preserve you alive in the face of all the terrible things happening in our world.^{(49) & (14)} Each of us should consider whether we have built faith for salvation; and whether we are expending our life's energy in continuing to do so.⁹⁶ The "Truth," wrapped up in Christ, has been

⁹⁶ Romans 1:16-17 CEV I am proud of the good news! It is God's powerful way of saving all people who have faith, whether they are Jews or Gentiles. gradually revealed⁹⁷ over the six thousand years⁽¹³⁾ of Bible history.⁽¹³⁾

What follows is our understanding of the scriptural steps to building faith. It is not being presented as the Bible definition of truth on this process. It represents our study, as we attempt to understand how people (we) build faith. The scriptures seem to suggest the following sequence in awakening to truth:⁽⁶¹⁾

1. We must start by finding some measure of mental peace in the midst of this calamitous world. It is hard to think about spiritual

⁹⁷ Romans 16:25-26 CEV Praise God! He can make you strong by means of my good news, which is the message about Jesus Christ. For ages and ages this message was kept secret, (26) but now at last it has been told. The eternal God commanded his prophets to write about the good news, so that all nations would obey and have faith.~

1 Corinthians 2:6-16 ESV (6) Yet among the mature we do impart wisdom, although it is not a wisdom of this age or of the rulers of this age, who are doomed to pass away. (7) But we impart a secret and hidden wisdom of God, which God decreed before the ages for our glory. (8) None of the rulers of this age understood this, for if they had, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. (9) But, as it is written, "What no eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the heart of man imagined, what God has prepared for those who love him"- (10) these things God has revealed to us through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches everything, even the depths of God. (11) For who knows a person's thoughts except the spirit of that person, which is in him? So also no one comprehends the thoughts of God except the Spirit of God. (12) Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might understand the things freely given us by God. (13) And we impart this in words not taught by human wisdom but taught by the Spirit, interpreting spiritual truths to those who are spiritual. (14) The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned. (15) The spiritual person judges all things, but is himself to be judged by no one. (16) "For who has understood the mind of the Lord so as to instruct him?" But we have the mind of Christ.

things if you are in constant terror. A calm heart (or a mind at peace) is the source of life.⁹⁸ Reading the words of Christ Jesus helps grant the reader peace of mind.⁹⁹

2. Just the opposite of Christ's teachings, this world is a hurtful place that tends to rob away peace. Satan's design is to upset and unbalance each of us. (Satan's system¹⁰⁰ tries to make a joke of God, and/or, to keep us from thinking about him altogether.¹⁰¹ Most of what we see in this old world system underscores suffering and death, or immorality and deceit in some form. In recent times there have appeared groups [religious fanatics] who actually promote terrorism.⁽¹⁰⁰⁾ Even if we are protected from such people, and are among those who have the best this world has to offer, we still have only 70 or 80 years while we watch

(77) You will tell his people that they can be saved when their sins are forgiven. (78) God's love and kindness will shine upon us like the sun that rises in the sky. (79) On us who live in the dark shadow of death this light will shine to guide us into a life of peace.

¹⁰⁰ 1 John 5:19 CEV We are certain that we [those following the teachings of Christ] come from God and that the rest of the world is under the power of the devil.

¹⁰¹ 1 Corinthians 1:18-21 GNB (18) For the message about Christ's death on the cross [or stake, or tree] is nonsense to those who are being lost; but for us who are being saved it is God's power. (19) The scripture says, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise and set aside the understanding of the scholars." (20) So then, where does that leave the wise? or the scholars? or the skillful debaters of this world? God has shown that this world's wisdom is foolishness! (21) For God in his wisdom made it impossible for people to know him by means of their own wisdom. Instead, by means of the so-called "foolish" message we preach, God decided to save those who believe.

And he also says, "Here I am with the children that God has given me." (14) Since the children, as he calls them, are people of flesh and blood, Jesus himself became like them and shared their human nature. He did this so that through his death he might destroy the Devil, who has the power over death, (15) and in this way set free those who were slaves all their lives because of their fear of death.

¹²⁵ John 8:24 MWT That is why I said you will die in your sins. If you don't have faith in me for who I claim to be (the son of God), you will die, and your sins will not be forgiven."

Luke 21:34-35 GNB "Be careful not to let yourselves become occupied with too much feasting and drinking and with the worries of this life, or that Day may suddenly catch you (35) like a trap. For it will come upon all people everywhere on earth.~

Mark 13:32-37 GW "No one knows when that day or hour will come. Even the angels in heaven and the Son don't know. Only the Father knows. (33) Be careful! Watch! You don't know the exact time. (34) It is like a man who went on a trip. As he left home, he put his servants in charge. He assigned work to each one and ordered the guard to be alert. (35) Therefore, be alert, because you don't know when the owner of the house will return. It could be in the evening or at midnight or at dawn or in the morning. (36) Make sure he doesn't come suddenly and find you asleep. (37) I'm telling everyone what I'm telling you: 'Be alert!'"

¹²⁸ 2 Peter 1:16-21 GW When we apostles told you about the powerful coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, we didn't base our message on clever myths that we made up. Rather, we witnessed life¹²⁹ as revealed over the 6000 years since Adam. No men could have created or even imagined the solution it contains. We are barely able to comprehend it. Praise יהוה⁽¹⁷⁾ you people!¹³⁰

Some people wonder when the kingdom of Christ is coming. They wonder how. They wonder where.⁽²⁾ They look for great signs and wonders.⁽¹²⁴⁾ The kingdom by Christ is judging the earth right now.¹³¹ People who recognize the presence of Christ are his majesty with our own eyes. (17) For example, we were eyewitnesses when he received honor and glory from God the Father and when the voice of our majestic God spoke these words to him: "This is my Son, whom I love and in whom I delight." (18) We heard that voice speak to him from heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain. (19) So we regard the words of the prophets as confirmed beyond all doubt. You're doing well by paying attention to their words. Continue to pay attention as you would to a light that shines in a dark place as you wait for day to come and the morning star to rise in your hearts. (20) First, you must understand this: No prophecy in Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation. (21) No prophecy ever originated from humans. Instead, it was given by the Holy Spirit as humans spoke under God's direction.

¹³⁰ Psalms 104:31-35 LITV The glory of Jehovah [יהוה] shall be forever; Jehovah shall rejoice in His works. (32) He looks to the earth, and it trembles; He touches the hills, and they smoke. (33) I will sing to Jehovah [יהוה]⁽¹⁷⁾ during my life; I will sing praise to my God while I exist. (34) My thoughts on Him shall be sweet; I will be glad in Jehovah. (35) Let sinners be consumed out of the earth and let the wicked be no more; bless Jehovah, O my soul; praise Jehovah [יהוה]! [or, Hallelujah!]

¹³¹ John 8:30-32 GNB Many who heard Jesus say these things believed in him. (31) So Jesus said to those who believed in him, "If you obey my teaching, you are really my disciples; (32) you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."~
John 12:46-50 CEV I am the light that has come into the world. No one who has faith in me will stay in the dark. (47) I am not the one who will judge those who refuse to obey my teachings. I came to save the people of this world, not to be their judge. (48) But exercising faith for life, while those who choose to ignore what he told us are continuing on their course without him. They continue dying...⁽¹²⁵⁾ The teachings of Christ are their hope; ~~their~~ our only hope. Help them. Help yourself! Abandon your sectarian religion while there is still time.⁽⁶⁴⁾ everyone who rejects me and my teachings will be judged on the last day by what I have said. (49) I don't speak on my own. I say only what the Father who sent me has told me to say. (50) I know that his commands will bring eternal life. That is why I tell you exactly what the Father has told me.

Christ is God's appointed king. He is examining the earth to provide deliverance for those who express faith in his teachings.^{132 & (27)}

¹³² 1 Corinthians 15:20-28 CEV (20) But Christ has been raised to life! And he makes us certain that others will also be raised to life. (21) Just as we will die because of Adam, we will be raised to life because of Christ. (22) Adam brought death to all of us, and Christ will bring life to all of us. (23) But we must each wait our turn. Christ was the first to be raised to life, and his people will be raised to life when he returns. (24) Then after Christ has destroyed all powers and forces, the end will come, and he will give the kingdom to God the Father. (25) Christ will rule until he puts all his enemies under his power, (26) and the last enemy he destroys will be death. (27) When the Scriptures say that he will put everything under his power, they don't include God. It was God who put everything under the power of Christ. (28) After everything is under the power of God's Son, he will put himself under the power of God, who put everything under his Son's power. Then God will mean everything to everyone.
